§ 4.204 Presumption of death.

(a) Administrative law judges shall receive evidence on and determine the issue of whether persons, by reason of unexplained absence, are to be presumed dead.

(b) If an administrative law judge determines that an Indian person possessed of trust property is to be presumed dead, he shall proceed as provided in § 4.202.

§ 4.205 Escheat.

Administrative law judges shall determine whether Indian holders of trust property have died intestate without heirs and—

(a) With respect to trust property other than on the public domain, shall order the escheat of such property in accordance with 25 U.S.C. 373a.

(b) With respect to trust property on the public domain, shall submit to the Board of Indian Appeals the records thereon, together with their recommendations as to the disposition of said property under 25 U.S.C. 373b.

§ 4.206 Determinations of nationality or citizenship and status affecting character of land titles.

In cases where the right and duty of the Government to hold property in trust depends thereon, administrative law judges shall determine the nationality or citizenship, or the Indian or non-Indian status, of heirs or devisees, or whether Indian heirs or devisees of U.S. citizenship are of a class as to whose property the Government's supervision and trusteeship have been terminated (a) in current probate proceedings or (b) in completed estates after reopening such estates under, but without regard to the 3-year limit set forth in § 4.242.

§ 4.207 Compromise settlement.

(a) If during the course of the probate of an estate it shall develop that an issue between contending parties is of such nature as to be substantial, and it further appears that such issue may be settled by agreement preferably in writing by the parties in interest to their advantage and to the advantage of the United States, such an agreement may be approved by the administrative law judge upon findings that:

(1) All parties to the compromise are fully advised as to all material facts;

(2) All parties to the compromise are fully cognizant of the effect of the compromise upon their rights; and

(3) It is in the best interest of the parties to settle rather than to continue litigation.

(b) In considering the proposed settlement, the administrative law judge may take and receive evidence as to the respective values of specific items of property. Superintendents and irrigation project engineers shall supply all necessary information concerning any liability or lien for payment of irrigation construction and of irrigation operation and maintenance charges.

(c) Upon an affirmative determination as to all three points specified, the administrative law judge shall issue such final order of distribution in the settlement of the estate as is necessary to approve the same and to accomplish the purpose and spirit of the settlement. Such order shall be construed as any other order of distribution establishing title in heirs and devisees and shall not be construed as a partition or sale transaction within the provisions of 25 CFR part 152. If land titles are to be transferred, the necessary deeds shall be prepared and executed at the
